RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The primary purpose of a Catholic school is the faith development of its students. With this as its goal, the gospel values and teachings of our faith are integrated throughout the school curricula and programs. The religion program, which includes classroom instruction, prayer and worship opportunities, retreats, and service programs, articulates the unique Catholic identity of the school in its faith development of the students, as well as that of the total school community. Therefore, it is essential that students participate fully in the total program. Parents and students are to sign below, indicating that they agree to comply fully with the school's philosophy, goals, regulations, and programs.
